It is my pleasure to recommend MRL Group of Companies as a well-qualified and viable partner in real estate acquisition. I am the President of a mortgage company in the United States that has a core focus on real estate acquisition for investors. I came to know MRL Group of Companies when the principals, Ron and Marge Lessoway, approached me nearly two years ago. The initial consultation was a fact-finding mission on their part and what I perceived as a routine inquiry into my services.

My overall first impression of Ron and Marge was that they were highly intelligent, had good analytical skills and had significant experience in the real estate industry. However, in my line of work, I often times get approached by groups on a "fact-finding" mission and then never hear from them again. Quite often the interest in our program waivers after I explain what it will take to make the deals work efficiently.

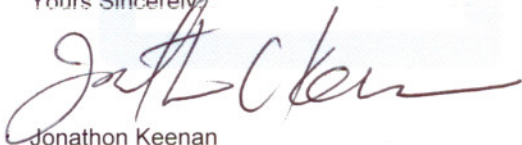

Nearly nine months after our first meeting, Ron and Marge called me up to request a follow up meeting. Upon sitting with them for a few short minutes of the 2nd meeting, I realized that MRL Group of Companies was no longer just a start up trying to find some answers. They were a true player in the industry with the due diligence to back it up. Since our first meeting they had positioned themselves with a highly reputable accounting firm and had retained legal representation with an International law firm.

At a personal level, The Lessoways were disciplined, motivated yet with a pleasant personality. They went well beyond the requirements in the quantity and quality of their project, putting in a lot of extra research and continually placing the utmost importance on integrity and compliance. Throughout the past two years, MRL Group of Companies has demonstrated great perseverance and initiative. MRL Group of Companies is not only interested in and motivated to learn the fluxes of the United States bulk REO sale market, but they've also put great work into assimilating their own experience in real estate and developing their own ideas about each ethical topic that we discussed.

MRL Group of Companies is unquestionably an exceptional candidate for success in this arena. Their work suggests that they would greatly benefit from the opportunities that are currently upon us in the United States real estate market. MRL Group of Companies have proven to have the perseverance and initiative, and the intellectual creativity necessary to complete projects they identify as viable. I would therefore highly recommend MRL Group of Companies.

If I can be of any further assistance, or provide you with any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely,

Jonathon Keenan
